■ The Beach Hut

This is a great site if you're looking for coastal accessories for your home, garden or even to take to the beach. Think tide clocks and tea towels, windbreaks and deckchairs. Take a look at beachhut.co.uk.

■ Coastal Home

Try this online shop if you're after something a little more rustic and hand-crafted. There are driftwood mirrors and wall art, plus striking wooden birds and fish. There's also a good range of personalised gifts. Go to coastalhome.co.uk.

■ Pearl and Earl

Definitely more colourful surf-chic than serene coastal, we love the VW camper tea towels. There are brilliant buys for summer days out, too, with pretty striped windbreaks and canvas beach huts. Visit pearlandearl.com.

■ Runaway Coast

Here you'll find striped bed linen for grown-ups and kids, nautical wallpapers and fabrics, plus a large choice of oilcloths. We like the smart piped cushion pads in lighthouse stripes. Go to runawaycoast.com.
