

◀ Upstairs on the second floor, the two small bedrooms have ingenious storage solutions. In the master bedroom, the hanging shelf folds down when not in use, and the rustic bench has concealed, built-in drawers.

◀ Porthole windows bring a quirky, nautical feel to Georgi's bedroom, while a vibrant pink sari, used as a door curtain, provides a blast of warm colour.

▶ There's more than a touch of the Med in this compact bathroom, which features a striking blue mosaic wall. The driftwood mirror, and the pedestal, which supports the tiny basin, remind visitors that the sea is close by.
